Harmony Hill Nursery, LLC Donates Nearly $5,000 in Trees and Shrubs to Penn State Horticulture Club

Downingtown, PA — October 13, 2026

Harmony Hill Nursery, LLC, located at 45 Buck Road, Downingtown, PA 19335, is proud to announce a nearly $5,000 donation of premium plant material to the Penn State University Horticulture Club in support of its annual Horticulture Show on Saturday, October 17, 2026, at the University Park campus.

The generous donation includes an assortment of native and specimen shrubs and trees, carefully grown and cultivated by Harmony Hill Nursery's team of passionate horticulturists. The diverse plant selection will contribute to the show's landscape displays while highlighting the beauty, versatility, and value of thoughtfully selected plant material.

"We are proud to support the next generation of horticultural professionals and contribute to an event that celebrates plants, landscape design, and the horticultural industry," said a representative of Harmony Hill Nursery, LLC. "Our team is passionate about growing exceptional plants and sharing that passion with others. Supporting Penn State's Horticulture Club is a meaningful way for us to invest in horticultural education and the future of our industry."

Penn State's annual Horticulture Show is a signature event organized by the student-led Horticulture Club. The show transforms the Snider Agricultural Arena at University Park into an immersive landscape display, showcasing the creativity and practical skills of students while connecting the public with the horticulture and green industries. Plant materials donated by regional nurseries and landscape companies help make the event possible and support the club's fundraising efforts.

Harmony Hill Nursery's contribution reflects its commitment to horticultural excellence, community involvement, and the continued development of the green industry. By providing a variety of native and distinctive specimen plants, the nursery is helping showcase the importance of plant diversity, quality cultivation, and thoughtful landscape design.

The Harmony Hill Nursery team is honored to contribute to this year's event and looks forward to seeing its donated plants incorporated into the students' work.
